A Barossa red that delivers bags of fruit at a keen price.  Rich dark fruit, soft tannins and a touch of pepper - fire up the barbecue!	Shy, retiring - think again! This is a big, brassy Barossa Shiraz.  Brim full of dark fruit. A rich, hedonistic treat.	From the Central Coast of California, the cooler climate creates a Rhone-like expression of Shiraz aka Syrah.  Dark fruit, black pepper and a hint of olive tapenade.	From one of the flagship estates in the Bekaa valley, Lebanon - a modern take on Chateauneuf du pape.  Bramble fruit and gamey notes from the Mourvedre in the blend.	Argentinian Malbecs don't come with much more prestigious pedigrees than those of Catena. This Svelte Malbec oozes plum fruit, blackcurrant and a dusting of mocha	From the cooler Lafayate valley in Mendoza comes this clever blend.  The Cabernet Franc adds violet aromas and additional acidity that gives welcome freshness to this supple wine.	Ebn Sadie is widely regarded as one of the most gifted winemakers in South Africa.  It is not often you see 100% Cinsault wines - a tricky grape to master but in Sadie's hands this wine has beautiful energy and freshness.	Russian River is perhaps one of the best exponents of the Burgundian style of Pinot Noir and this is no exception.  Bright sour cherry fruit, smooth tannins and a long finish.

DE ALTO CRIANZA RIOJA	DE ALTO RESERVA RIOJA	PIRAPU, JUMILLA	CHATEAU D'ARSAC MARGAUX	DOMAINE DE LA MADONE FLEURIE	BRUNO SOURDAIS CHINON	MAZZOLADA CABERNET FRANC	VILLA WOLF PINOT
Soft raspberry and strawberry fruit married with smooth tannins and a hint of vanilla from the oak.  Benchmark crianza - uncomplicated and very quaffable.	De Alto make their Reserva in the best years when the quality of fruit produces a wine with greater ageing potential Concentrated red fruit, tobacco and leather notes.	A blend of Monastrell (the speciality of this region).and Syrah Bramble fruit, soft tannins and a meaty note on the finish.	A blend of two thirds Cabernet Sauvignon, one third Merlot.  The Cabernet element gives the wine the tannic structure to age and the Merlot gives soft plummy fruit - perfect harmony!	Put aside any misgivings you have about Beaujolais wines. This wine made with the Gamay grape is packed with sour cherry and redcurrant fruit. Best served slightly chilled alongside some charcuterie.	The signature red grape of the Loire valley is Cabernet Franc. Sometimes the wines can tend towards a slightly unripe, green pepper note but this beauty has plenty of ripe fruit - great chilled on a summer's day.	Cabernet Franc has been grown in the cooler parts of NE Italy for centuries. Lovely cherry and redcurrant fruit, refreshing acidity and light bodied for the perfect afternoon aperitif.	German Pinot Noir has come on in leaps and bounds over recent years but some are still a bit heavy on the oak. Not this one - perfect bright cherry fruit and a bit of a bargain at this price.
